			From	To

V. MINIMUM STANDARDS FOR THE CODE

a. Preservation of UPSI

No Designated Person shall communicate, provide, or allow access to any UPSI to any person except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

b. Need to Know

UPSI shall be handled on a “Need to Know” basis, i.e. UPSI should be disclosed only to those who need the information to discharge their duty.

c. Limited access to UPSI

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password etc. and physical files shall be kept in proper locks etc. Files containing confidential information, if not needed, should be deleted / destroyed after being used as per the document policy of the Company, if any.

d. Chinese Wall

To prevent the misuse of confidential information the Company shall adopt a “Chinese Wall” procedures and processes. The Chinese wall procedures and processes shall allow the Designated Persons to use UPSI, for the above mentioned purpose(s) including, but not restricted to discharge of contractual/statutory obligation, if any, and for such other purposes as may be decided by the Compliance officer in consultation with Managing Director.

e. Trade in securities when in possession of UPSI

No Insider shall trade in securities of the Company when in possession of UPSI provided that the Insider may prove his innocence by giving valid reasons of the circumstances as mentioned below:

- a. the transaction is an off market transaction inter-se between the Promoters who were in possession of UPSI without breach of promises of Regulation 3 of Regulations, if such transaction is made for legitimate purpose and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.
- b. In case of non – individual Insiders (Company, firm etc):
 - (i) the individuals who were in possession of such UPSI were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision –making individuals were not in possession of such UPSI when they took the decision of trade and
 - (ii) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place that these Regulations are not violated and no UPSI was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions.

- (iii) Trading is done pursuant to a TP submitted to the Company
- (iv) In cases of trades by Connected Person, the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of UPSI shall be on such Connected Person
- (v) In any other case the onus would be on SEBI

VI. TRADING PLAN

a. Importance of Trading Plan

1. All Designated Person before possessing an UPSI may formulate a Trading Plan ('TP') and the same is required to be approved by the Compliance Officer subject to compliance of Code and Regulations
2. By virtue of TP, a designated Person can plan for trades to be executed by him/her in future
3. No pre-clearance would be required for dealing in the securities of the Company once the TP gets approved.
4. By doing so, the possession of UPSI when a trade under a TP is actually executed would not prohibit the execution of such trades as that was pre-decided even before the UPSI came into being.

b. Requisites of Trading Plan

1. A trading shall be executed on expiry of six months from the date of public disclosure of the TP.
2. Trading as per TP shall not take place between 20th trading days prior to the last day of the financial period for which the results are required to be announced by the Company and 2 trading days after the disclosure of such financial results.
3. Designated Person shall give one TP at a time and the same shall not be less than 12 months i.e. there cannot be any overlapping of TP's
4. TP shall set out either the value of trades or the number of securities to be traded, along with specific dates and time intervals.
5. Trading on the basis of TP shall not lead to market abuse. If any manipulative activity is detected, it would open to initiate proceedings breach of SEBI (Prohibition of Fraudulent and Unfair Trade Practices relating to the Securities Market) Regulations, 2003.

c. Approval of Trading Plan

1. The Compliance Officer shall review the TP to assess whether such plan has any potential and is not in violation of the Regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be considered necessary including but not limited to the effect that the applicant is not in possession of UPSI.
2. On the basis of such assessment, the Compliance Officer shall within 15 days of the receipt of TP, approve or dis-approve any trading plan so submitted. In case of dis-approval the Compliance Officer shall record the reasons for the same.

d. Notification to Stock Exchange(s)

The Compliance Officer shall notify the particulars of the approved TP to the stock exchange(s) where its securities are listed.

e. Execution of Trading Plan

1. TP once approved shall be irrevocable and has to be mandatorily implemented without any deviation.
2. The implementation of the TP shall be deferred if any UPSI in possession at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of commencement of implementation of such plan.

VII. TRADING WINDOW

1. Designated persons and their immediate relatives are not allowed to trade in the shares of the Company during the period(s) when the Trading Window is closed.
2. The trading window shall generally be closed for all Insiders from the day decided by the Compliance officer in consultation with the Managing Director of the Company prior to the happening of any of the following events in general till the completion of forty-eight hours after the such information becomes generally available:-

- Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annually)
- Declaration of dividend (interim/ final)
